

WEAVER BIRD GARMENT MANUFACTURERS LTD

Dealers in: School Uniforms, Staff Uniforms & Other Garments

Thika Light Industrial Area
Off Garissa Highway,
Kianjau Athena Road,
Near Broadway Sec. School.
P.O Box 4137-01002- Thika

Tel: 020-2051487
Mobile: 0722-264 464
Email: sales@weaverbirdkenya.com
weaver.garmentsm@yahoo.com
www.weaverbirdkenya.com

ANTI-BRIBERY & ANTI-CORRUPTION POLICY

1. Purpose

Weaver Bird Garment Manufacturers Ltd is committed to conducting its business honestly, ethically, fairly, and with integrity.

This Anti-Bribery & Anti-Corruption Policy establishes Weaver Bird's position on bribery and corruption and provides guidance to employees and persons acting on behalf of the company on preventing, identifying, and reporting suspected bribery or corrupt conduct.

Weaver Bird maintains a zero-tolerance approach to bribery and corruption in its business activities and relationships.

2. Scope

This policy applies to all persons working for or on behalf of Weaver Bird Garment Manufacturers Ltd, including, where applicable:

- Directors and management;
- Permanent and temporary employees;
- Trainees and interns;
- Contractors and subcontractors;
- Agents and representatives;
- Consultants; and
- Other persons or organisations acting on behalf of the company.

We also expect suppliers and other business partners to conduct their dealings with Weaver Bird honestly and in accordance with applicable anti-bribery and anti-corruption laws.

3. Our Commitment

Weaver Bird is committed to conducting business professionally, fairly, transparently, and with integrity.

We do not tolerate bribery or corruption, whether involving private individuals, commercial organisations, institutions, customers, suppliers, contractors, or public officials.

All persons covered by this policy are expected to comply with applicable anti-bribery and anti-corruption laws and to avoid conduct that could reasonably create the appearance of bribery, corruption, or improper influence.

4. What is Bribery?

Bribery generally involves offering, promising, giving, requesting, agreeing to receive, or accepting a financial or other advantage with the intention of improperly influencing a decision, action, or business outcome.

A bribe does not have to involve cash. Depending on the circumstances, an improper advantage may include:

- Money or payments;
- Gifts;
- Excessive hospitality or entertainment;
- Commissions or kickbacks;
- Discounts or benefits given for an improper purpose;
- Employment or business opportunities;
- Personal favours;
- Travel or accommodation;
- Charitable or other contributions intended to influence a decision; or
- Any other benefit offered or received in exchange for improper preferential treatment.

Bribery may occur directly or indirectly through an agent, intermediary, contractor, supplier, representative, or other third party.

5. Prohibited Conduct

Employees and persons acting on behalf of Weaver Bird must not:

- Offer, promise, give, request, or accept a bribe;
- Make or receive kickbacks;
- Offer an improper payment or benefit to obtain or retain business;
- Offer an improper advantage to influence a procurement or tender decision;
- Provide money, gifts, employment, commissions, discounts, or other benefits in exchange for improper preferential treatment;
- Make improper payments through an agent, supplier, contractor, or other intermediary;
- Conceal, falsify, or misrepresent payments or transactions;
- Use company funds or resources for corrupt purposes; or
- Encourage, assist, authorise, or knowingly ignore bribery or corrupt conduct.

No employee will be penalised for refusing to participate in bribery or corruption, even where that refusal results in Weaver Bird losing a business opportunity.

6. Public Officials, Procurement and Tenders

Particular care must be exercised when dealing with public officials, government departments, public institutions, procurement personnel, tender committees, schools, hospitals, corporations, and other organisations involved in purchasing or awarding contracts.

No payment, gift, favour, commission, benefit, or other advantage may be offered or provided for the purpose of improperly influencing:

- A tender or procurement process;
- The award or renewal of a contract;
- Supplier selection;
- An inspection or approval;
- Payment of an invoice;
- Regulatory or administrative action; or
- Any other official or commercial decision.

All bids, quotations, tenders, and procurement submissions made by Weaver Bird must be prepared and submitted honestly and in accordance with applicable requirements.

7. Gifts and Hospitality

Reasonable and appropriate business hospitality may be acceptable where it serves a legitimate business purpose and is not intended to improperly influence a decision.

Gifts or hospitality must never be offered, given, requested, or accepted where they:

- Are intended to obtain an improper business advantage;
- Are offered in exchange for a favour or favourable decision;
- Could reasonably be regarded as influencing a procurement or tender process;
- Consist of cash or an inappropriate cash equivalent;
- Are excessive or inappropriate in the circumstances;
- Are prohibited by law or by the recipient's organisation; or
- Are concealed or deliberately left unrecorded.

Employees should exercise particular caution regarding gifts or hospitality offered by existing or potential suppliers, contractors, or customers.

Where an employee is uncertain whether a gift or hospitality is appropriate, the matter should be referred to management before the gift or hospitality is offered or accepted.

8. Facilitation Payments and Kickbacks

Weaver Bird prohibits facilitation payments and kickbacks.

A facilitation payment is an unofficial payment or benefit intended to improperly secure or accelerate an action or service.

A kickback generally involves returning or providing part of a payment, contract value, commission, or other benefit in exchange for obtaining or retaining an improper business advantage.

Employees and persons acting on behalf of Weaver Bird must not offer, make, request, or accept such payments.

If a person demands an improper payment from an employee or representative of Weaver Bird, the request should be refused where it is safe to do so and reported promptly to management.

9. Charitable Contributions, Donations and Sponsorships

Weaver Bird may support legitimate charitable, community, educational, or social initiatives.

However, donations, sponsorships, or other contributions must never be used as a means of concealing bribery or obtaining an improper business advantage.

Company contributions should:

- Be lawful and made for a legitimate purpose;
- Be appropriately authorised;
- Be made transparently;
- Be accurately recorded; and
- Not be conditional upon receiving an improper commercial, procurement, regulatory, or personal advantage.

10. Conflicts of Interest

Employees and persons acting on behalf of Weaver Bird should avoid situations in which personal interests improperly influence, or appear to influence, business decisions.

Potential conflicts may arise from personal, family, financial, or other relationships involving customers, suppliers, contractors, competitors, procurement personnel, or other parties connected with Weaver Bird's business.

Actual or potential conflicts of interest that could affect a business decision should be disclosed promptly to management so that they can be appropriately assessed and managed.

11. Suppliers, Contractors and Other Business Partners

Weaver Bird expects suppliers, contractors, agents, representatives, and other relevant business partners to conduct business honestly and without bribery or corruption.

No third party may be used to perform an act that would be prohibited if performed directly by a Weaver Bird employee.

Where appropriate, Weaver Bird may consider anti-bribery and corruption risks when selecting, appointing, or maintaining relationships with suppliers, contractors, agents, and other business partners.

Suspected misconduct involving a business partner may be reviewed and may result in corrective action, suspension, or termination of the business relationship where appropriate.

12. Accurate Records and Financial Controls

Weaver Bird is committed to maintaining accurate and appropriate business and financial records.

Payments, expenses, commissions, gifts, hospitality, donations, and other transactions must be recorded accurately and must not be disguised, omitted, or deliberately mischaracterised.

Employees must not create false invoices, fictitious expenses, undisclosed accounts, misleading records, or other documentation intended to conceal an improper payment or transaction.

Supporting documentation should be maintained where required by company procedures and applicable legal or financial obligations.

13. Employee Responsibilities

Every employee has a responsibility to:

- Read, understand, and comply with this policy;
- Conduct business honestly and ethically;
- Refuse to offer or accept bribes;
- Avoid activities that could result in bribery or corruption;
- Maintain accurate records relating to transactions under their responsibility;
- Seek guidance when uncertain about a proposed transaction or activity; and
- Promptly report suspected bribery, corruption, or other conduct that may violate this policy.

Managers have an additional responsibility to promote ethical conduct and respond appropriately to concerns brought to their attention.

14. Reporting Concerns

Employees, suppliers, contractors, customers, and other persons are encouraged to report suspected bribery, corruption, improper payments, conflicts of interest, or other suspected violations of this policy.

Concerns should be raised as early as reasonably possible and should contain sufficient information to enable the matter to be assessed.

Reports may be made to an appropriate manager or directly to Weaver Bird through:

Email: info@weaverbirdkenya.com

Reports will be handled responsibly, and confidentiality will be maintained to the extent reasonably practicable.

15. Protection Against Retaliation

Weaver Bird does not tolerate retaliation against a person who, in good faith:

- Refuses to participate in bribery or corruption;
- Reports a genuine concern;
- Raises questions about potentially improper conduct; or
- Assists appropriately with an investigation.

A person who raises a concern in good faith will not be penalised merely because the concern is ultimately found to be mistaken or unsubstantiated.

Knowingly making a false or malicious allegation, however, may itself constitute misconduct.

16. Investigation and Response

Reports of suspected bribery or corruption may be reviewed or investigated as appropriate to the circumstances.

Persons involved in an investigation are expected to cooperate and provide truthful and accurate information.

Where misconduct is established, Weaver Bird may take appropriate action, which may include:

- Corrective measures;
- Disciplinary action;
- Termination of employment or a contractual relationship, where appropriate;
- Recovery of company property or funds;
- Strengthening relevant internal controls; and
- Referral to the appropriate authorities where required or appropriate.

Any action taken will be subject to applicable law and relevant company procedures.

17. Training and Awareness

Weaver Bird will seek to ensure that employees are appropriately informed about the company's position on bribery and corruption.

Relevant employees may receive additional guidance or training depending on their responsibilities and exposure to bribery and corruption risks, particularly where their roles involve procurement, sales, contracting, finance, payments, tenders, suppliers, or interactions with public institutions or officials.

The principles of this policy may also be communicated to relevant suppliers, contractors, and business partners where appropriate.

18. Monitoring and Compliance

Management is responsible for supporting the implementation and effectiveness of this policy.

Relevant internal procedures, records, transactions, and controls may be reviewed periodically to identify and address bribery and corruption risks.

Employees are encouraged to raise concerns or suggest improvements that could strengthen the company's anti-bribery and anti-corruption controls.

19. Breaches of this Policy

Failure to comply with this policy may result in disciplinary or other appropriate action.

Serious breaches may result in termination of employment or a business relationship and may also be reported to relevant authorities where required or appropriate.

Nothing in this policy limits any legal obligations or consequences that may arise under applicable law.

20. Contact Information

Questions, concerns, or reports relating to bribery, corruption, or this policy may be directed to:

Weaver Bird Garment Manufacturers Ltd

Thika Light Industrial Area

Off Garissa Highway, Kianjau

Athena Road near Broadway Sec. School

P.O. Box 4137-01002, Thika

Tel: 020-2051487

Mobile: 0722-264 464

Email: info@weaverbirdkenya.com

Alternative Email: weaver.garmentsm@yahoo.com

Website: www.weaverbirdkenya.com

21. Policy Administration

Weaver Bird Garment Manufacturers Ltd reserves the right to review and update this policy periodically to reflect changes in its operations, product requirements, and applicable obligations.

Managing Director

WEAVER BIRD GARMENT MANUFACTURERS LTD

ANTI-BRIBERY & ANTI-CORRUPTION POLICY