Such content may include:

- Other original content created or commissioned by Weaver Bird.

Content belonging to third parties remains the property of its respective owners and is used subject to the applicable rights, licences, permissions, or legal exceptions.

3. Copyright

Copyrighted materials owned by Weaver Bird Garment Manufacturers Ltd may not be copied, reproduced, republished, distributed, modified, displayed, transmitted, commercially exploited, or otherwise used without permission except where such use is permitted by applicable law or expressly authorised by Weaver Bird.

Visitors may view and, where functionality is provided, download materials made available for that purpose, including policies, technical documents, size guides, and similar resources, for legitimate personal, customer, procurement, or business-reference purposes.

Downloading or accessing such material does not transfer ownership of the intellectual property or grant an unrestricted right to reproduce, modify, redistribute, sell, or commercially exploit it.

4. Weaver Bird Trademarks and Brand Identity

The name Weaver Bird Garment Manufacturers Ltd, the Weaver Bird name, company logo, brand marks, trade names, slogans, and other distinctive brand identifiers used by the company may constitute trademarks or other protected intellectual property of Weaver Bird Garment Manufacturers Ltd.

Nothing on our website or in our materials should be interpreted as granting a licence or right to use Weaver Bird trademarks or branding without prior permission, except where expressly authorised.

No person or organisation may use Weaver Bird branding in a manner that falsely suggests sponsorship, endorsement, affiliation, partnership, approval, or another commercial relationship with Weaver Bird.

5. Use of the Weaver Bird Logo

The Weaver Bird logo is an important part of our corporate identity.

The logo must not be copied, altered, distorted, recoloured, incorporated into another logo, or used on products, packaging, websites, social media, advertising, promotional materials, or other commercial communications without appropriate authorisation from Weaver Bird.

Where permission to use the logo is granted, it must be used in accordance with any instructions, specifications, or brand guidelines provided by Weaver Bird.

Authorised customers, distributors, institutions, suppliers, or other business partners must not imply a relationship with Weaver Bird beyond the scope of the permission granted.

6. Product Images and Photography

Product photographs and other images created for or owned by Weaver Bird may be protected by copyright and must not be reproduced or commercially used without appropriate permission.

This includes images displayed on our website, product pages, catalogues, brochures, social media materials, advertisements, technical documents, and other official communications.

Where Weaver Bird provides product images to an authorised customer, institution, distributor, or business partner for an approved purpose, the images must be used only within the scope of that permission.

7. Garment Designs, Artwork and Custom Branding

Certain garment designs, patterns, artwork, graphics, embroidery artwork, print designs, technical drawings, or other creative materials developed by Weaver Bird may be protected by applicable intellectual property rights.

Where customers provide their own logos, trademarks, artwork, school crests, corporate identities, designs, or other materials for embroidery, printing, labelling, or garment production, ownership of those materials remains subject to the rights of the respective owner.

Customers are responsible for ensuring that they have the necessary authority or permission to provide such materials to Weaver Bird for the requested manufacturing or branding purposes.

Submission of customer-owned branding or artwork to Weaver Bird does not transfer ownership of that intellectual property to Weaver Bird.

8. Third-Party Intellectual Property

Our website, products, or materials may occasionally contain or refer to trademarks, logos, names, photographs, artwork, or other intellectual property belonging to third parties.

All third-party trademarks and intellectual property remain the property of their respective owners.

Reference to a third-party trademark, organisation, institution, product, or brand does not by itself imply endorsement, sponsorship, partnership, or affiliation unless expressly stated.

9. Permitted Use

Unless otherwise stated or authorised, users may access Weaver Bird website content for legitimate informational, procurement, customer, and personal purposes.

Users must not, without appropriate permission:

- Reproduce Weaver Bird content for commercial purposes;
- Sell or commercially redistribute Weaver Bird materials;
- Use Weaver Bird trademarks or logos to market unrelated goods or services;
- Modify Weaver Bird branding in a way that misrepresents the company;
- Present Weaver Bird content as their own;
- Remove copyright, trademark, ownership, or attribution notices from protected materials; or
- Use Weaver Bird intellectual property in a misleading, unlawful, or unauthorised manner.

Nothing in this policy is intended to restrict any use that is expressly permitted under applicable law.

A request should, where applicable, identify:

13. No Transfer of Intellectual Property Rights

Access to the Weaver Bird website, purchase of Weaver Bird products, receipt of company documentation, or participation in a commercial relationship with Weaver Bird does not by itself transfer ownership of Weaver Bird's intellectual property.

Any licence or permission granted by Weaver Bird is limited to the purpose and conditions expressly specified when that permission is given.
